

Money management workshops offered

The More for Your Money Program is offering free workshops to help individuals in areas such as tracking spending, creating a budget, learning to save, opening and managing checking account, understanding credit and credit scores and more.

The four-week workshop will be conducted in English at Family Resources Community Action, 65 Main St., beginning May 18 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The workshop will be conducted in Spanish at 184 Sayles St., beginning Thursday May 20, at 9 a.m.

All participants will receive individualized financial coaching and an opportunity to have their credit reports pulled and analyzed. Additional financial fitness workshops and tip sessions will be planned throughout the year.

For more information or to register for the training, contact Monah Rhodes at 401-235-6081 or mrhodes@famresri.org.

More for Your Money is a financial stability program administered by Family Resources Community Action in partnership with NeighborWorks Blackstone River Valley, and funded by the United Way of Rhode Island's Community Impact Fund 2010-2012. The program seeks to help individuals and families increase their income, build savings, and gain and sustain assets by providing financial education, training, resources & referrals and support.
