United Way of R.I. Young Leaders Circle is collecting nonperishable food items for the Food Bank

Providence, R.I.— United Way of Rhode Island will be collecting until Friday, Dec. 18, nonperishable food items to donate to the Rhode Island Community Food Bank.

Donations need to be dropped off at United Way of Rhode Island, 50 Valley St., Providence, weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. on or before Dec. 18.

Suggested items include tuna, peanut butter, canned beans, soup, stews, canned fruits and vegetables, juices, tomato sauce, nutritious breakfast cereals, pasta and brown rice.

United Way of Rhode Island Young Leaders Circle (YLC) is taking charge of this seasonal food collection. The mission of the YLC is to engage young Rhode Islanders in creating positive impact in the community through education, volunteering and philanthropy.

About United Way of Rhode Island

United Way of Rhode Island has been working to improve the quality of life in Rhode Island communities for over 80 years. UWRI's mission is to mobilize the caring power of the community to improve the lives of people in need and address the issues Rhode Islanders care most about. United Way's goal is to create long-lasting changes that prevent problems from happening in the first place. We believe that all Rhode Islanders deserve the opportunity to have a better life, as when any one of us succeeds, we all succeed. At United Way, we refer to this as advancing the common good.
