

United Way of Rhode Island
2016-19 Competitive Grant RFP
Letter of Intent Statistical Overview

November 2015

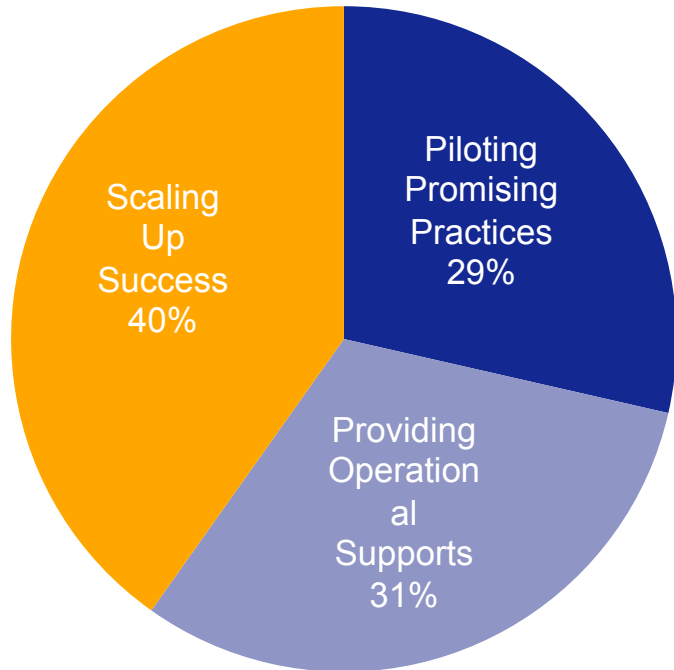

Key Highlights

- 224 letters of intent received from 137 organizations
 - $16,183,575 in requests
- 87 applications invited to submit full proposal
 - $6,570,503 in requests
- All proposals scoring 80 or above were invited to apply

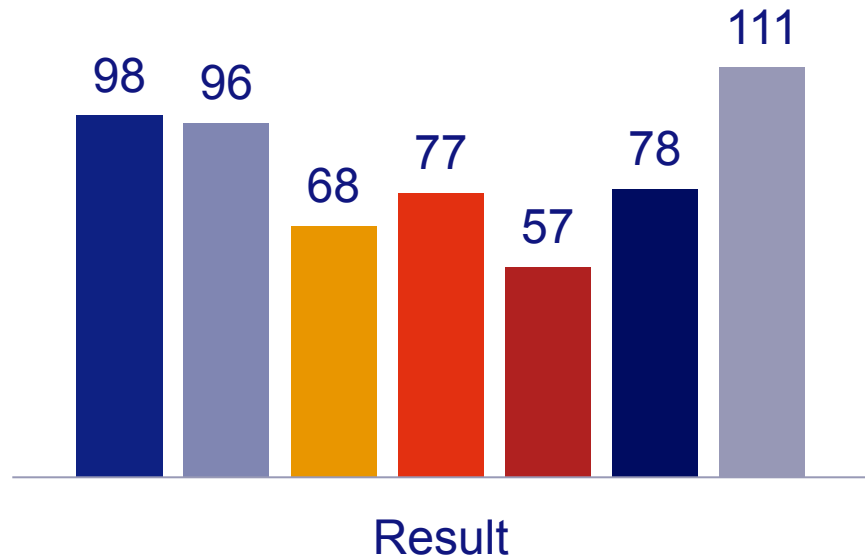

Facts about All Letters of Intent

Application Type

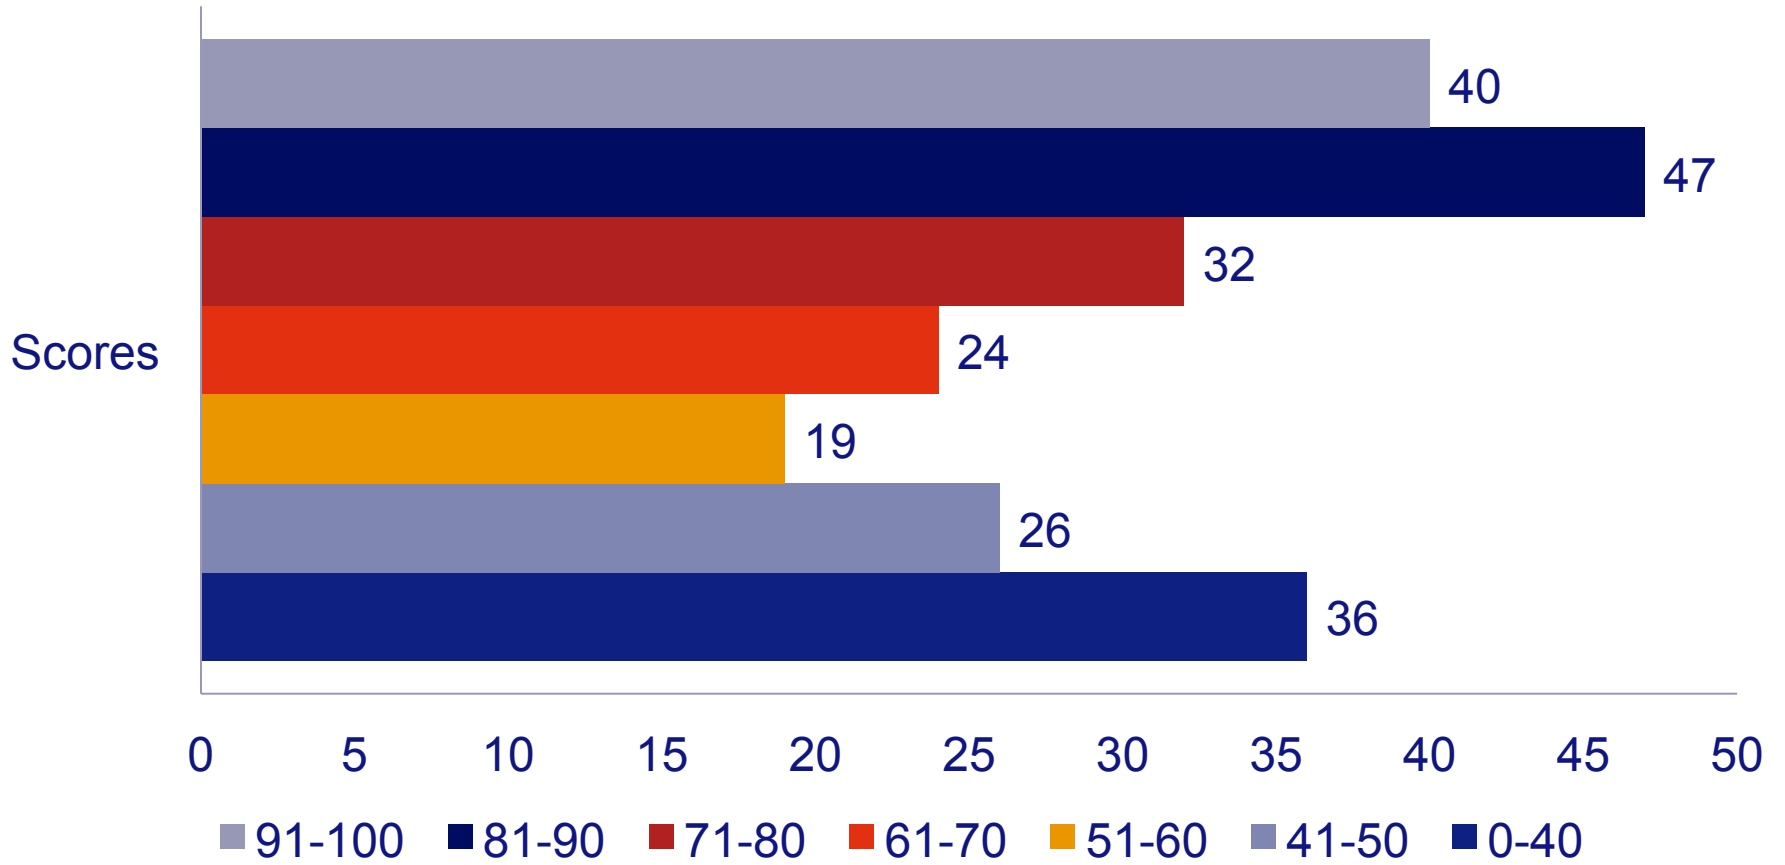

Application Focus

- Children are prepared for success in school
- Young adults are prepared for college and career
- Adults are prepared for careers
- Adults are employed and earning family sustaining wages
- Rhode Islanders are in stable, affordable housing
- Rhode Islanders are financially secure
- Rhode Islanders are healthy

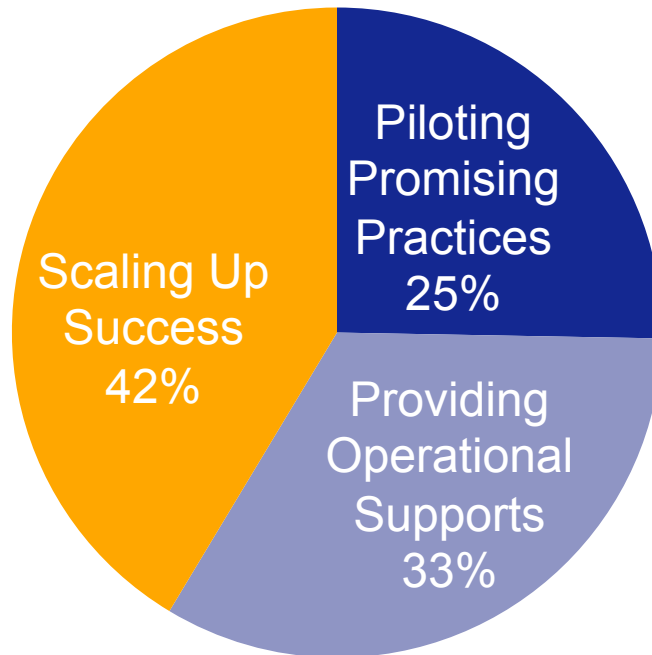

Scores Breakdown

Invited Proposals

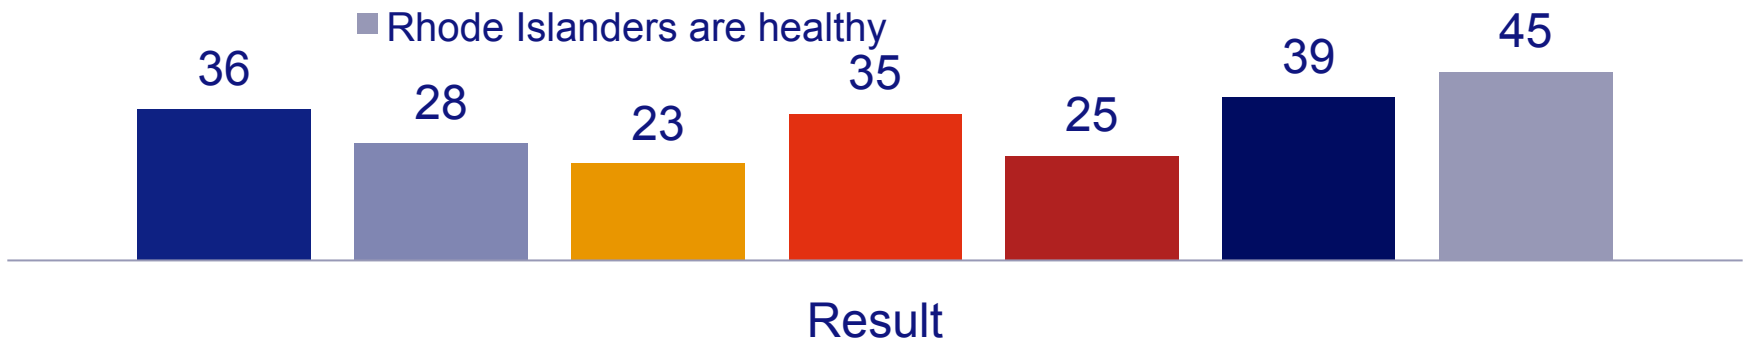

Application Type

Invited Proposals

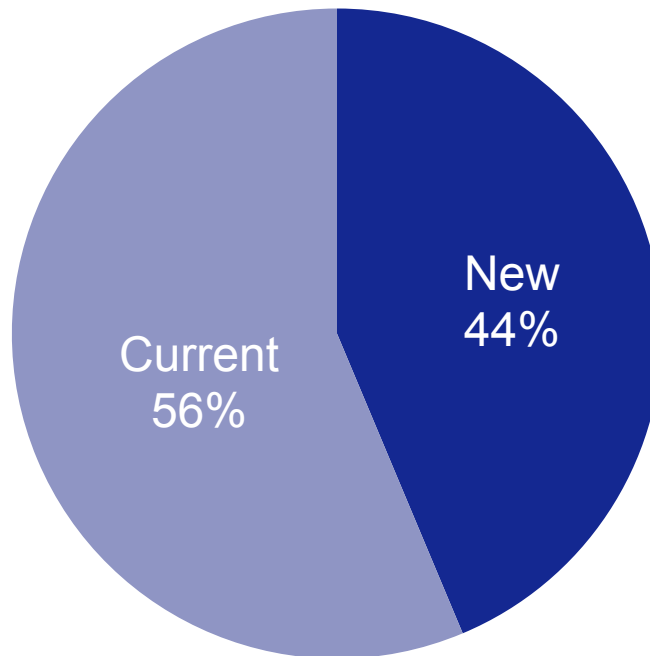

Application Focus

- Children are prepared for success in school
- Young adults are prepared for college and career
- Adults are prepared for careers
- Adults are employed and earning family-sustaining wages
- Rhode Islanders are in stable, affordable housing
- Rhode Islanders are financially secure
- Rhode Islanders are healthy

Invited Proposals

New Grantee vs. Current Grantee

Survey Feedback

- 99 responses received from applicants and non applicants who participated in information sessions, requested a login, and/or submitted a letter of intent
- 76% found information sessions helpful or very helpful
- 77% said getting information was easy or fairly easy
- 90% said they have a clearer understanding of UWRI's direction
- 65% were satisfied or very satisfied with process
- Biggest challenges cited – 3 pages was not enough space, UWRI asked for a lot of information

For more information, contact

Adam Greenman
Executive Vice President, Community Investment
United Way of Rhode Island
50 Valley Street
Providence, RI 02909

adam.greenman@uwri.org

www.liveunitedri.org

